

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rock & Rouge Women's Music and Food Festival Rescheduled to March 2026

New Orleans, LA — October 22, 2025 — Due to inclement weather and the safety risks posed by unpredictable conditions, the Rock & Rouge Women's Music and Food Festival originally scheduled for October 25–26, 2025 has been officially postponed. The festival will now take place on March 28–29, 2026, from 10 AM to 8 PM at Lafayette Square in downtown New Orleans.

This rescheduling aligns with Women's History Month, amplifying our mission to celebrate women's voices, artistry, and culinary excellence in a season of national recognition and empowerment.

Same Lineup, Same Spirit

All previously announced performers will return for the March dates, bringing the same vibrant energy and musical brilliance to the stage.

Food Vendor Applications Now Open

We are currently accepting applications for food vendors. Interested parties can email therockandrouge@gmail.com to apply and be part of this dynamic celebration.

Why We're Moving

As a free festival, we are committed to accessibility and community joy—but we cannot afford to take risks with weather-related cancellations. This decision ensures a safer, more stable environment for artists, vendors, and attendees alike.

More Information

For press inquiries, partnership opportunities, or general questions, please contact us at 504-523-6276 or via email at therockandrouge@gmail.com.

We look forward to seeing you in March for a powerful weekend of music, food, and women-led celebration.

###