 Rock and Rouge Foundation's partnership with WHIV-LP 102.3 FM traces back to founder Lani Ramos, who launched Rock & Rouge Radio in July 2017 following the momentum of the Women's March. As a WHIV DJ from 2017 to 2020, Ramos debuted WHIV's live broadcast at the festival in 2018, sparking a powerful alliance rooted in women's voices and civic truth. Ramos now welcomes WHIV back to the festival—where it all began—to continue amplifying women's rights, human rights, civil liberties, and the freedom to speak boldly and unapologetically...to end all wars.

Join us in celebrating women's voices, visions, and victories. Whether you're rocking out, sipping mocktails, or casting spells at the Witches Brew T-Party, Rock & Rouge is where empowerment meets artistry.
